

CHAPTER 25

UNIFORM TITLES

25.15-end

25.15. LAWS, ETC.

25.15A. Modern laws, etc.

25.15A1. Collections. Use, Laws etc. for a complete or partial collection of legislative enactments of a jurisdiction other than a compilation on a particular subject.

LC rule interpretation:

Collections other than those of U.S. States

For a collection of general laws from a jurisdiction other than a state of the United States, add to “Laws etc.” an appropriate designation to identify the particular collection enclosed in parentheses. This will usually be the title proper of the collection or a brief title. If, however, the collection has become well known by a designation other than its title or brief title (e.g., name of editor, publisher), use that designation instead.

If further qualification is desirable or is needed to distinguish the collection from other editions bearing the same uniform title, add the edition statement or a meaningful date or dates, such as the date of enactment, reenactment, or updating or dates of coverage (but not the date(s) of publication or copyright). Enclose the title and addition within one set of parentheses and separate the addition from the title with a space-colon-space. If the collection is a translation or is an edition in another official language of the jurisdiction, add the language as the final element outside the parentheses, preceded by a period-space.
